It is remarkable that other three boys, all of the name of Ross, and sons of a neighbouring farmer, accompanied our Author every day to this public school. They persevered for the usual length of time, about four years, in acquiring such knowledge of the Latin as to fit them for the college: all contended for bursaries at Aberdeen, and were successful; continued four sessions at Marischal College, and took the degree cf A. M. The youngest, Robert Ross, and as our Author has often observed, the best scholar of the three, became farmer, and in that capacity lived independent and respected for life.
