General Andrew Jackson was born on the 15th of March, 1767, in Waxhaw settlement of South Carolina, where his parents had settled two years before. The family from which Jackson was descended, was originally from Scotland, and formed a part of one of those bands of colonists by which the policy of England endeavored to establish permanent rule in Ireland after she had destroyed the national independence of that unhappy country. His grandfather whose name was Hugh Jackson, was a linen draper, near Carrickfergus, and had four sons, of whom the youngest, Andrew, was the father of the General. The oppression and misrule of the British government drove Andrew from his native country in 1765, and with his wife and two sons, Hugh and Robert, he sought an Asylum in the Waxhaw settlement, in South Carolina. There, on the 15th of March, 1767, Andrew Jackson was...
