In the case of escapes, by stat. 8 9 W. 3. e. 26. 25. 11 The marslial or warden of any prison shall not in any action c for an escape against them, give in evidence a re-taking upon - fresh suit, except the same be specially pleaded; nor (hall any special plea be received, unless oath be made in writing by the marshal or warden, and filed, that the prisoner did, with out defendant s knowledge, privity, or consent, make such escape. In an action against the warden or marshall, an affidavit under the statute, that the escape, if any such escape there was, was without defendant s knowledge, is good with these words. If plaintiff in his declaration sets out a voluntary escape, defendant may plead, that he took the party on fresh suit, without traversing the voluntary escape; for the alledging it is nowise necessary to his action, but it sliould come in the replication: so under a count for a voluntary escape, the plaintiff may give 1 negligent one in evidence. And note: That actions for escapes being founded in malefidh ar not within the statute of limitations. The defendant, in an action for an escape, shall never be allowed to plead or give in evidence that the first suit was improperly commenced; for as he could justify under the process, he shall nofbe allowed to take...
