Yet I feel that I was fortunate in having my lot cast in this community, for the very reason that it was a reading community a half century ago. The parish library and the social library, with which I early became acquainted, though they would seem meagre to-day in comparison with their successor, were treasures, I imagine, which but few towns possessed. You enjoy a proud distinction among the three hundred towns and cities of this Commonwealth. When, more than thirty years ago, you received a generous gift from a source which greatly increased its value, you were not content to enjoy it alone. You seized the golden opportunity of placing, through your reverend representative, this great blessing within the reach of every town and city in the State. Other communities have received more princely benefactions, have erected more imposing buildings, have gathered a larger number of volumes; but it has been your peculiar glory to give a bright example of that Fabian wisdom which saved Rome in her extremity, --the wisdom of doing much with comparatively little expenditure. It is a pleasure to me to reflect how the money with which your library was founded was obtained. The first five hundred dollars was earned by honest brain-work in teaching, first to the senior class of Brown University, and then publishing to the world the great principles of moral and political philosophy. The second five hundred was earned upon your...
