The third church was organized in 1880 with twenty-one members. These churches are self-supporting, and around them are grouped common schools. Sabbath-schools, district prayer-meetings, Young Men s Christian Associations, Christian Endeavor Societies and Missionary Societies. They have been blessed with precious revivals. In 1875, during the ravages of the cholera, great solemnity pervaded the community. More than 100 were added to the churches as the fruit of that awakening. In 1889 there was a still more powerful revival, as the fruit of which 539 were added to the churches. In 1890 the number of communicants in the three churches was 1,487; of pupils in the Sabbath-schools, 1,550; of pupils in the day-schools, 848. The present force of American workers in Aintab gives its strength chiefly to educational work. At the very beginning of the mission a training school was established for the purpose of preparing preachers and teachers from among the people themselves. This school was afterwards removed to Marash. In 1870 the question of a college began to be seriously agitated, the people of Marash and Aintab being the prime movers in the matter and offering liberal aid therefor. The first class of Central Turkey College was formed at Aintab in 1876. and a building was soon put up on a hill west of the city. Rev. Dr. T. C. Trowbridge was the first president, and labored with untiring zeal in the United States and England...
