Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .ridge of low hill on the horizon, the landscape is without notable features: in one field the cows stand kneedeep in the sedges of the sleepy river, in another, they shelter beneath a row of elms. All is set in flat tones, tedious to him who yearns to glories beyond the sky line, but dear to those who under a blazing heaven have dreamed of English shadow. To them, the passing of the clouds over the long level pastures, the mobile light, are treasures more firmly held for their quiet setting. When day is over, and the moon. rising, inks tree-shadows on the grass, and the stirring in the boughs is as a caress of underlying peace, we draw near to the wanderers who here sought repose. Quick with sympathy, under the summer night, we image two, standing within the shade of the gaunt mansion, and our joy lies deep as for friends who have come unto their own. Wise in the wisdom of affection, free in the freedom of understanding, our concern is slight with those whose perverted imagination misreads the story. Doubtless, through ignorance they err, but continuance in error is inexcusable, for the records remain and they are fragrant with the sweetness of pot-pourri. In 1813 Warren Hastings was summoned to the bar of both Houses of Parliament to give evidence bearing on the proposed renewal of the East India Company s Charter; when he retired from the Commons the Members rose in...
