It is no common task you have assigned me. It is no common event which has assembled us together. No joyous ceremonial - no inaugural fete, which has this day gathered you within these walls. The emblems of woe are around us; a nation is clad in the habiliments of mourning, and the voice of wailing and lamentation is heard upon every breeze. The head of this Republic - the elect of the people - the idol of a nation's hopes, so recently called for the second time to preside over the destinies of our beloved country, the Patriot - the President...
